The Presbyterian Agreement.

The joint committee appointed by the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, Old School and New School, has after a session of one week, definitely agreed upon terms of reunion with remarkable unanimity. Such an announcement as this ought to gladden the hearts of all really Christian men who desire to see some of the innumerable and distressing sectarian divisions harmoniously overcome, and although the present action does not settle the union of these two denominations, it is a long step towards it. These terms are to go before the churches for a year before final action, and three-fourths of the Presbyteries will have to ratify them to make the agreement valid. Still there has been, for a number of years past, a gradual drawing together in feeling on the part of the two denominations; the old asperities have died away, and with them much of the difficulty about doctrinal points; so that we confidently anticipate the consummation of the union. Here in Philadelphia, which was the scene of the division, as it has always been the head quarters of Presbyterianism in the United States, we shall most heartily rejoice over the termination of a trouble that has been so fraught with heart-burnings.

In the national census of 1860 we find four kinds of Presbyterians set down, the two great divisions of the Church, Old School and New School, being classed as one denomination, and the others being the "Cumberland," "Reformed," and "United." It is possible that this does not fully represent all the divisions of the Church in the United States. What is here set down as the "United" Presbyterian Church includes the smaller denominations known as "Associate" and "Associate Reformed," which were united in the year 1858. The two great Presbyterian sects in 1860 stood thus:

| | Both. | OldSchool. | NewSchool. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Synods, | 55 | 33 | 22 |
| Presbyteries, | 275 | 171 | 104 |
| Ministers, | 4,220 | 2,963 | 1,257 |
| Churches, | 5,075 | 3,592 | 1,483 |
| Members, | 427,790 | 292,857 | 134,933 |

These figures include the whole republic. What is now the state of the southern Presbyterian churches we are unable to say, but presume that the war cut them off from the existing northern organizations, and gave them sectional organizations of their own; so that, if the present agreement should be ratified, it will not reunite all of the old original Presbyterian Church. Nevertheless, it will make a powerful denomination of Christians, perhaps sufficiently so to attract into its orbit as well the southern Presbyterians as the United States, the Reformed and the Cumberland bodies. We argue this from the common tendency now perceptible in all the Protestant churches toward union and fraternity. In Prussia, the two leading Protestant denominations have been united. In the American Episcopal churches the southern churches have been brought back successfully to the fold, and the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyterians have united, and other efforts have been made in a similar direction in other sects. The division among the Methodists wears an unpromising look, the southern Methodists apparently being determined not to be conciliated.

But the undivided front presented by the Latin Church and the prompt adjustment of reunion by the Episcopal Church have produced a salutary effect in admonishing other denominations. We cannot doubt that if the present agreement between the two great divisions of the Presbyterian Church should be consumated, the immediate effect will be to induce great efforts to reconstruct the Methodist and Baptist Churches nationally, to overcome the political or doctrinal differences, and to strengthen those organizations generally. Aside from the sectional divisions caused by the war, which may and should be adjusted, because there is really no longer any reason for their continuance, there are many others which, however much they may gratify the sticklers for doctrinal points, are sad reflections on Christian fellowship and harmony, and have long since outlived their day and generation. The Protestants of the country are entirely too much divided an split up into sects. Many of the members are totally unaware of any real cause for disunion, and would be heartily glad for a general reconciliation.

If Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians cannot unite together, at least all the Baptists can and should, and so of the other two sects. We hope therefore, that a good example will be set to the whole Presbyterian Church of America by Philadelphia which is the metropolis of the Church, and that the mighty influences centering here may all be used for forward this great work. For here are the several great Boards and Committees of Publication, Education, Missions, Church Extension, etc., which reach so far and wide in their operations. As the Episcopalians are now firmly reconstituted and without divisions, so let us have the Presbyterians in like manner standing all together as one national body of Christians all over the land.

If this movement should prove successful, as we sincerely hope and trust it may, we shall not despair of some day seeing a great American evangelical church organization formed by the union of all the leading Protestant denominations. Such a union would constitute a body of Christians formidable by their vast numbers, their religious zeal, their intelligence and their indisputable influence upon the popular masses and institutions of the republic. We have derived sectarianism from Europe. We should give back to the old world, as an emblem of the character of the nation, an evangelical church blending all the excellences of the multiform sects, and exhibiting the practical and fraternal spirit of our countrymen. Though the first attempts at such a union may not succeed, yet the end is grand enough to call for persisting and long continued labor in that direction.—Phila. Gazette.

—The Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, is now living at his home, near the Cumberland Iron Works, a few hours' steamboat travel below Nashville, on the Cumberland river. He is about seventy-three years old, badly broken down physically and pecuniarily. Before the war he owned six hundred negroes, worth a quarter of a million at least, and was the principal owner in the large iron works at Chattanooga, which were burned in 1862. He is very much disgusted with politics and affairs generally, and has no sympathy with the new condition of affairs.

—The Peabody Institute at South Danvers has a permanent fund of $122,000, which, with its institute building and the library of 11,854 volumes has been given by Mr. Peabody. An enlargement of the building, commenced last year, will be completed the present season, at a cost of $40,000, and contain a department for Eben Dale Sutton library, and a fire and burglar proof room for the safe keeping of the Queen's portrait, and other valuables which Mr. Peabody will deposit in it.

—From a Treasury return, just printed, it appears that in 1866 the total amount of the English national debt was £802,842,949, of which £773,313,299 was funded, £8,187,700 unfunded, and £21,342,020 the estimated value of terminable annuities. In the same year the terminable annuities created were £192,283, those expired £78,794, the value of those reduced, £589,643; obligations were cancelled to the amount of £2,554,800, and funded debt paid off to £2,455,066.

—In some portions of Illinois the action of the school directors in excluding colored children from the public schools has caused considerable excitement. A public meeting was recently held in the town of Normal, where the Illinois State Normal University is located, and the president and professors of the University denounced the action of the directors in strong terms.

THE WAR ONLY POSTPONED—PROPOSITION FOR A GENERAL DISARMAMENT.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A cable dispatch to the Herald, dated the 11th, says: Notwithstanding the satisfactory solution of the Luxemburg question, by the treaty arrangement, fears are entertained and generally expressed that the war has been merely postponed by the work of the diplomatists. Warlike preparations are still actively carried on in France, Germany, Prussia and Greece. It is said that before the close of the Peace Congress a proposal will be addressed by England to all the powers inclined to belligerent action, in which Queen Victoria will recommend and urge a general disarmament. Should this be entertained, another Congress will probably assemble in London, to secure its formal adoption and uniform execution by all the great powers. But it is thought that even this proposition will not be successful in securing the maintenance of peace.

CONSCRIPTION IN GREECE.

The fourth military conscription during this year has been put in force in Greece, by which the Greek army has been increased 30,000 men. The condition of the navy is also engaging the consideration of the Greek Government. A large enrollment of seamen is now in process of completion.

Irish Land Tenure Bill—Gratitude to Victoria for Her Effort in Behalf of Peace—Queen of Spain Sells Her Jewels—King of Prussia's Speech to the Chambers—The War in Candia—Rosa Bonheur Insane—France Said to be Encouraging the War Against the Cretans.

The steamers Hammonia and New York, from Southampton on the first, have arrived.

The Irish Land Tenure Bill was discussed at length in the British House of Commons.

Mr. Gregory moved an amendment, declaring that no bill of the kind could be acceptable which did not provide for the adoption of a system of license in Ireland.

Warm gratitude was expressed in French society to Victoria, whose personal intervention would prevent the great calamity of war. It would tend to draw closer the bonds of amity between the two countries.

The Queen of Spain sold almost all her jewels in London. A single diamond watch and chain brought twenty-four thousand pounds sterling.

It is reported, but denied, that Garabaldi had an interview with Ratazzi.

It is stated that France continues to prepare for war and troops have been arranged so they can be concentrated almost immediately; but the opinions generally favored peace.

The King of Prussia and Bismarck are expected to visit Paris after the close of the Prussian chambers. The King in his speech at the opening, thereof, said they met to ratify national unity. The new confederation only includes the states of North Germany, but an intimate national community will unite them with the Southern German states. The vivid conciousness of the South German governments and the population of the dangers of German dissension, and the necessity to form a national union, which constantly fills the more decided expression throughout the whole of Germany, will assist to hasten the solution of that important task. The united strength of the nation will be entitled and be competent to guarantee to Germany the blessings of peace and the effectual protection of her rights and interests. With this assurance, my government will devote itself to avoiding any interruption to European peace by every means compatible with the honor and interest of the fatherland. The German people, however strong in unity, will be called calmly to face the vicissitudes of the future.

The speech was frequently applauded, and the King loudly cheered. At the close the Government of Hesse Darmstadt introduced a bill for a military convention with Prussia, and a motion has been brought forward for the entry of Hesse Darmstadt Provinces south of the Main, to unite with the North German Confederation.

Omar Pasha's army and the forces of another Turkish General, were moving to surround the insurgents in Candia.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Death of Commander Paulding, of the United States Steamer Wateree—Affairs in Columbia—Revolution at an End—Rebels in Rio Hacha Under Herrera—Difficulty Between the British Consul and the President of Bolivia—Vetoes by Mosquera—Spanish Frigate in Pursuit of a Privateer—Nicaraguan Affairs—Disappearance of the Cholera—Dictatorship in Lima.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 11.—The steamer Arizona brings Panama advices to the 4th, and $42,000 in treasure from California.

Commander Leonard Paulding, of the United States war steamer Wateree, died of dysentery on the 29th ult. The burial service was performed by Rev. Thomas Beecher, and the remains interred on the Island of Perico. Deceased was the son of Admiral Paulding, and leaves a widow and three children in Brooklyn.

Advices from the interior of Columbia state that the revolution proclaimed in the State of Magdalena had been concluded in a manner highly satisfactory to the national government. General de Godeas' troops had returned their allegiance to the government, whereupon the Constitutional army took possession of Santa Martha, the capitol of the State. Full pardon has been granted to all the insurgents and indemnity from punishment to all who returned arms and government property held by them.

A severe conflict between the legitimate forces and the rebels under Herrera was in progress April 25th, in the State of Rio Hacha. The result is unknown.

Advices from Bogota give the correspondence between Mosquera and the British Minister, relative to the arrangements by the President of Bolivia with the Commander of the English man-of-war Dover. Mosquera's government had withdrawn the exequatur of the British consul at Carthagnea and disapproved the course of the President of Bolivia in the dispute concerning the English mails. The English Minister had expressed regret at the withdrawal of the Consul's exequatur, and declared that for his part the matter must be left for the consideration of the British Government.

Mosquera had vetoed the project of the law recognizing the power of the States to maintain in time of peace the number of troops they deem expedient; also laws upon public order and for the sale of the navy.

A Spanish frigate arrived at Santa Martha on April 2d, in search of the steamer Rayo, formerly the R. R. Cuyler, and subsequently left for Carthagena.

Mosquera, in reply to a resolution of Congress, has denied that he had arranged for the purchase of any steamship or other vessel, but the Bogota papers state that he bought the Rayo with money from his own purse.

General Degada was at Carthegena, Capt. Reed of the Rayo, having obtained his release from the authorities of Magdalena.

The Panama Railroad negotiations were progressing, and the agents of the company would probably obtain the contract, notwithstanding Mosquera's opposition thereto.

Two Nicaraguaian Senators were to be tried for conspiracy and sedition.

The reported departure of an expedition from Costa Rica to attack the frontiers of Nicaragua, is unfounded.

The cholera had disappeared from the capitol, and entirely ceased in Grenada.

Senor Godive is nominated as consul of Nicaragua in California.

Ex-President Peartines is nominated as minister to Great Britian. His mission is to arrange the remainder of Nicaragua's small foreign debt and the demands against the United States, to procure European emigration and a loan, and make postal contracts.

Lima dates to April 22d state that the resignations of the Cabinet had not been accepted. The ministers, however, are determined upon the acceptance of their resignations at the establishment of the Dictatorship for an indefinite period, which latter will probably be done. Congress remains in open hostility to the Government. The proposition declaring the Presidency vacant was rejected after an exciting debate. It is considered probable that Prado will forcibly dissolve that body. The revolution in the south was subdued after two engagements, in which the Government troops lost five killed and seven wounded. The rebels had neither money, arms, nor a leader.

The U. S. ships Powhattan, Nicack and Resaca were at Callao.

The news from Chili is unimportant.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Further advices state that the Rago does not belong to the Columbian government, but is the private property of Mosquera. A draft from parties in New York, who sold her, had been protested, and it seems doubtful if they get their pay.

The Chilian government has been successful in the elections.

No steps have been taken towards the settlement of the Spanish difficulty, and preparations are still going on for defense against another invasion.

The allied fleet is still at Valparaiso. It consists of nine efficient vessels.

Advices from the Argentine Republic state that the Mendoza revolutionists were defeated on the 1st of April, after a fight of four hours.

The Columbian Congress passed the bill, over Mosquera's veto, directing the sale of all the vessels of the Columbian navy. Another storm is brewing in consequence.

The Spanish frigate Navas De Tolosa lay alongside the Rayo, in Carthagena Bay, and the Captain made a demand on the town and government officials for information regarding the Rayo's character. Evasive answers were returned, and the Captain immediately disabled the Rayo by removing parts of her machinery in such a manner that she could not leave the port, and then notified the government of Bogota that they must proove her a bona fide Columbian vessel within forty days.

It was believed Mosquera intends a blow at the Spanish interests in the Carribean Sea.

Gen. Sullivan, the new American Minister to Columbia, had arrived.

The Peruvian Congress had declared all disagreement with Chili ended, and those countries more firmly united together than ever.

THE INDIAN WAR.

Steamboat Seized—Passengers and Crew Massacred—Boat Pillaged and Burned—"Big Talk" at Leavenworth—Arrival of Troops for Service on the Plains.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 11.—A special to the Journal from Council Bluffs, Iowa, dated the 11th, says, the steamer Leclair passed down the river to-day bringing news of the destruction of the steamer Miner, by the Indians, about 500 miles above Sioux City. The boat landed to take wood, and while the crew were chopping, the Indians, about 200 in number, surrounded and massacred the whole party, and captured the boat, killing and scalping men, women and children indiscriminately. Only two men escaped. After pillaging the boat of all its valuables, the Indians burned it to the water's edge.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—General Sherman arrived at Leavenworth to-day, where he met General Hancock, who has just returned from the Plains. The two Generals will start for Fort Harker on Monday next, to have a "big talk" with the Kiowas, Camanches, Cheyennes, and Arapahoes, represented by their various chiefs. There is nothing new from Hancock's expedition.

The Democrat's Omaha special says that detachments of troops arrive there almost daily for service on the Plains. The telegraph line was down west of Julesburg. The Indians are suspected of cutting it.

The Commissioners to investigate the Fort Phil Kearney massacre left Fort Laramie yesterday for that fort.

The report of the massacre of the passengers and crew of the steamer Miner, by Indians, above Sioux City, is not credited in Omaha, but the editor of Council Bluffs Nonpariel expresses confidence in its truth. The Miner was a St. Louis boat and had quite a number of passengers and a valuable cargo.

FROM MEMPHIS.

Southern Baptist Convention—Other Religious Conventions—The Millerite Judgment Day.

MEMPHIS, May 11.—The Baptist Convention adopted resolutions changing the session from biennual to annual, and fixing the next session at Baltimore in next May. The Indian Mission has reported little progress during the past year. A resolution has been adopted urging the Church to pray and labor more faithfully for the conversion of the Jews.

The Episcopal Convention convenes next Tuesday, and the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church next Wednesday.

The Millerites here predict the day of judgment is to-morrow. Several merchants have closed their stores and settled up their accounts in consequence, preparing for their final doom.

Ice in Buffalo Harbor—Crews of Ice Bound Vessels Suffering.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, May 12.—The southern portion of the bay is still blocked with ice. Several vessels are ice-bound outside, and the crews are suffering for want of provisions. The crew of the bark Werralites came in over the ice this morning, carrying planks for safety. They report that the crew of the Werralites have been living for the past seven days on one biscuit a day to each person. The crew of the bark Northwest have been living on boiled corn for two days past. Two of the crew of the schooner Cornelia also came in this morning and reported her cargo of corn heated and rapidly spoiling. Mr. Winslow, of the firm of Winslow & Co., immediately despatched a tug and life boat, with provisions, &c., to the suffering vessels. Two tugs also left to assist the Cornelia. The vessels will all be released from the ice to-morrow, if the weather is favorable. Forty vessels left here this morning by the lower channel.

ANOTHER RIOT IN RICHMOND.

Police Resisted by Negroes—Churches Guarded—Rioters Arrested—Negro Procession—Another Riot Feared.

RICHMOND, May 12.—Another riot occurred in the lower portion of the city last night. A number of negroes attempted to rescue a drunken negro from the police, and bricks, clubs and pistols were used. Four policemen were badly beaten, and one was severely injured. A company of soldiers, who were guarding Libby Prison, were called out and captured eighteen of the rioters.

While that was going on another difficulty occurred on First street, but it was quelled by the persuasion of a colored juryman.

To-day mounted soldiers patrolled the streets to keep order, and squads of policemen were placed at all the churches, in view of threats by the negroes to force their way in amongst white people.

A large procession of negro societies attended a funeral to-day, accompanied by an unarmed company of colored militia. The officers carried swords. There was no disturbance.

J. K. Haywood, of Massachusetts, was arrested last night for using language at the negro meeting, on Friday night, calculated to create riot. His language was as follows: "After Judge Underwood leaves you can do as you please. I need not advise you what to do, as great bodies do as they have a mind." He was arrested on the warrant of the Mayor, and released on $3,000 bail to appear to-morrow. The citizens have been apprehensive of a riot all day.

Latest—Judge Underwood and Horace Greeley Address the Negroes and Advise them not to Gather in Crowds.

RICHMOND, May 12—At the African Church, about ten o'clock to-night, Judge Underwood and Horace Greeley made addresses to the negroes. Judge Underwood advised the negroes against riot. He said General Schofied told him he heard there might be a riot here to-morrow, and if there was he would plant cannon in every street and sweep the rioters down with grape. Judge Underwood urged the negroes not to gather in crowds, and go about their business. Horace Greeley urged the negroes not to engage in riot, but go peaceably about their daily avocations.

LATEST CONDENSED NEWS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

—The steamer China, which arrived at Boston yesterday, had quite a rough passage. On the 3d instant, while the passengers were on deck, a large wave struck the vessel and broke through the light deal panelling. One seaman was washed overboard and eight passengers injured. One of them, J. C. Coggswell, of Halifax, was killed. Several others had limbs sprained or broken. At Halifax a coroner's jury held an inquest on Coggswell's body.

—Hon. A. C. Hunt has been appointed Governor of Colorado.

THE JEFF. DAVIS SENSATION.

His Departure from Fortress Monroe and Arrival in Richmond—No Extraordinary Demonstration—Military Arrangements—Davis' Affection for Ex-President Pierce—Expected Executive Clemency in the Case Bail is Refused in the United States Court To-day.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FORTRESS MONROE, April 11.—A busy scene presented itself at Carroll Hall, early today, preparations being made by Davis and family for departure. At 7 o'clock General Burton arrived at Carroll Hall and found Davis ready to accompany him. Leave-taking was exchanged by him and his family with their friends in the fort, and General Burton walked on one side of Davis, and Dr. Cooper, his physician, on the other. Robert Ould and a brother of Davis, who arrived last evening from Vicksburg, escorted Mrs. Davis and her sister, and they were followed by several friends. A large crowd gathered on the wharf around the steamboat landing, to witness the departure of Davis. He conversed with his friends cheerfully aboard the steamer John Sylvester. He looked much better than when imprisoned, though very pale and attenuated. Marshals Underwood and Duncan accompany him to Richmond.

RICHMOND, May 11.—The steamer John Sylvester, with Jeff. Davis on board, arrived this afternoon. Long before his arrival military arrangements had been made by General Schofield. A detachment of the 29th regiment was present, and sentinels were posted at intervals, enclosing about two hundred yards square of the wharf. Outside of this a large crowd of negroes and a few whites were gathered. The brows of the surrounding hills were thickly covered with spectators. Major Vance, of General Schofield's staff, who was in command, had a detachment of the 8th artillery, numbering about fifty, mounted as a guard for the carriages. As the steamer hove in sight, with the national flag flying, the most intense anxiety was exhibited by the crowd to get closer, but there was no demonstration, no cheering nor hissing. When the steamer was made fast, Hon. James Lyons went aboard and had a feeling meeting with Davis. He brought Mrs. Davis ashore and conducted her to a carriage, followed by her two servants. In a few minutes Davis came over the gangway plank, accompanied by General Burton and Dr. Cooper. The party immediately got into carriages, and surrounded by the mounted guard, drove rapidly by a side street up towards the Spottswood Hotel, thus disappointing large crowds who had gathered on Main street, near the wharf to see Davis.

Davis was cheerful, and he had no guard, walking freely about the boat, conversing with passengers, who were all anxious to speak to him. He said little about his imprisonment, but spoke in terms of the warmest affection of Ex-President Pierce, who visited him on Thursday last. He said there was no man living for whom he entertained a higher regard.

At Brandon, on the way up, a number of ladies had gathered to speak to him, who shed tears at seeing him. They had been acquainted with his family during the war.

A lady named Mrs. Davis, of Richmond, who got on the boat at Norfolk, died in the ladies' cabin, just before reaching here.

Two bridal parties came up on the same boat.

There is a large and curious crowd, all orderly, around the Spottswood Hotel, waiting to get a glimpse of the prisoner. He will remain in General Burton's charge until produced in Court on Monday.

The citizens generally, in deference to the wishes of the authorities, staid away from the docks. Many of them were stationed in doors and windows along the main street to see Davis as the procession passed up. He occupies the same rooms at the Spottswood Hotel that he did in 1861. It is the opinion, as expressed by one of the counsel, that if bail is refused him, the Executive will interfere to prevent confinement until his trial comes off. Many of Mr. Davis' friends will visit him to-night and to-morrow.

RICHMOND, May 11.—The crowd around the Spottswood Hotel dispersed after vainly waiting to see Davis. He has a private parlor, and takes his meals in his own room. This evening he received visits from nearly one hundred prominent citizens, among them the Pastor of St. Paul's Church, where he first received the news of the breaking of Lee's lines. There is no restriction of his movements, and he has the liberty of the house.

In view of the recent riot, the 11th United States infantry is about to encamp permanently at City Springs Park, within the city.

Some citizens laid before General Schofield a complaint about the language used at the colored meeting on Friday night, as likely to produce further disturbance, and the matter is being investigated.

A large number of permits are being granted to be present at the session of the United States Court on Monday, many of them to colored people.

Further About Davis—He is Without a Guard—The Programme for to-day.

RICHMOND, May 12.—Mr. Davis remained at the Spottswood Hotel all day, and was called on by a large number of citizens. There is no guard over him. Several boquets were sent him.

The following is generally understood to be the programme in Court for to-morrow: The prisoner will be produced by General Burton, and the Judge will discharge him; he will be immediately re-arrested on a bench warrant to answer an indictment found against him by the Grand Jury at Norfolk. Mr. O'Connor, his counsel, has stated to his friends that he will insist on an immediate trial. Another of his counsel states that if the trial is not granted, a motion for bail will be insisted on.

The general opinion is that no trial will take place now, and perhaps not until June.

Horace Greeley and Augustus Schell, of New York, A. Welch and Gen. Backman, of Philadelphia, are here for the purpose of going bail for Davis. Charles O'Connor, of New York, and William B. Reed, of Philadelphia, counsel for Mr. Davis, are here. William L. Evarts, of New York, who assists in the prosecution, and L. H. Chandler, Prosecuting Attorney, arrived this afternoon from Washington.

It is generally believed that Davis will be held in custody until his trial.

FROM MEXICO.

Gomez, at Tampico, in Revolt Against Juarez—Canales also in Revolt—Tampico Closed as a Port of Entry—Maximilian Leads a Forlorn Hope at Queretaro and is Repulsed—City of Mexico Ladies Ask for Quarter—Vera Cruz Still Besieged.

NEW ORLEANS, May 11.—The steamer General McCullom, from Tampico on the 6th, arrived at Galveston to-day. She carried a large cargo of arms for the Liberals, and reports Gomez, commanding at Tampico, in open revolt against Juarez. On the 5th General Paron, commanding the forces north of the State of Vera Cruz, had received orders to relieve Gomez, who was dismissed from the army in disgrace. The order of dismissal recites that $800,000 of receipts from customs and revenue remained unaccounted for. Tampico is suspended as a port of entry, and notice is given that parties paying duties to the present incumbent are liable to be collected again on leaving port. Gomez has 2500 men, 300 armed and equipped. Paron with his small force was incapable of assuming the offensive until reinforced; but is expecting assistance. Canales was making common cause with the revolting General, who threatens, if attacked, to desolate the rich districts of Haastra.

Advices from San Louis Potosi, to the 27th ult., state that on the 23d Maximilian was at Queretaro and placed himself at the head of a column of 6,000 men in leading a sortie. The fight lasted all day. The Liberals were surprised at first and were driven back, but were subsequently rallied under Torveno and Cordova, who repulsed the Imperialists, and held a portion of the city for a few hours, and then took up their old position. It is believed at San Luis that the place has succumbed, the prisoners taken on the 23d representing provisions and water very scarce.

Benevades continues the seige of Vera Cruz, and has 4,000 to 5,000 men completely investing the city by land and water. The scarcity of provisions is such that persons are obliged to eat horse flesh.

The death of Miramon is confirmed.

A committee of ladies sallied out of the city of Mexico, and in the name of the besieged asked a guaranty for general safety. It was granted conditionally. Marquez and other Imperialists were positively excluded.

General Diaz is daily receiving reinforcements from neighboring towns.

FROM CHARLESTON.

Order Concerning Sequestered Property—Republican Convention.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 12.—Gen. Sickles has issued an order requiring all persons concerned in the seizure of any kind of real or personal property sequestrated by the Confederate Government to report in writing at his headquarters the amount and kind of such property sequestrated, the time and place of such sequestration, with the names of the original owners and present holders.

The Republican State Convention has adjourned to meet in Columbia, July 24th. A platform was adopted, affirming their adherence to the Republican party of the North.

Speculators Come to Grief.

Robert Matthews, the Alleged Counterfeiter and Burglar—Scramble for One Thousand Dollars Reward.

During 1865, in the United States Court, sitting in this city, a young man, yet in his minority, of respectable connections, and of unblemished character, was tried and convicted of passing counterfeit money. At the trial it was urged in his behalf that he had been the dupe of two well-known and hardened offenders, Robert Matthews and William McCreery, who had inveigled him into wrong-doing—that he should not be punished for the sins of his betrayers,—that they had escaped and he appeared at the bar of the court to answer for a crime of which he was but in a comparatively small degree guilty. It was this manner of reasoning that secured the exercise of clemency, a pardon from the President preventing the execution of the sentence pronounced. Following this the young man became a "detective" in the police business. This much by way of prologue to the "scramble for a reward of one thousand dollars."

On Friday night of week before last the Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Canonsburg, in Washington county, was burglariously entered and the safe blown open with powder and robbed of a considerable sum of money, including specie, among which were some odd or peculiar coins. The officers of the Bank offered a reward of one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of the burglars. On the night following this robbery the young "detective," introduced in our prologue, met with, in the city, Robert Matthews, one of the men who had been the means of leading him into the crime for which he so narrowly escaped punishment. They had social converse, supped together at the "Rush House," the detective plying his vocation. Matthews told of his adventures, stating that he had just arrived from Washington county on foot. They went to visit an acquaintance, Mrs. ——, and Matthews fondled the children at the house, distributing among them pieces of silver coin. Among other things he told, Matthews acknowledged that he and McCreery were the persons who committed the burglary at the house of William Linn, Esq., on Wylie street, during last fall. The "detective" and his prey separated, and a day or two afterwards Matthews was arrested on a charge of counterfeiting, officer Brown, of Alderman Strain's police, performing this service, on a warrant issued on an information lodged by officer Hague. Matthews was committed for a hearing before the United States Commissioner.

After the arrest and committal of Matthews the "detective" heard of the Canonsburg robbery, or at least further of its details, and calling to mind statements made by Matthews, also the fact of his distributing pieces of silver coin, determined to direct his energies towards securing the one thousand dollars reward. His first move was to secure the coin which Matthews had distributed, and this done, it became necessary for him to take counsel with other officers as to what further should be done. Matthews was in the hands of the United States authorities, and his being held for trial, or his conviction for counterfeiting, would leave no show for securing the reward offered by the bank authorities. This was unfortunate. The "detective," too, could furnish the evidence on the counterfeiting charge. Pending the hearing of Matthews before the United States Commissioner, officers from this city went to Washington to attend the hearing of Bird and Whittaker, the alleged murderers of Sproull, and whilst there the matter of the bank burglary and the tracing of coin to the possession of Matthews was talked of. The pieces of coin were described to an officer of the bank, and the belief being expressed that they were among the specie taken from the bank safe, an information was made by officer Wilmot before a Justice of Washington borough, charging Matthews with being concerned in the robbery. A warrant was accordingly issued, duly endorsed by Alderman Strain, and the hearing of Matthews before the U. S. Commissioner anxiously awaited. It was fixed for Thursday last, but deferred until next day. Meanwhile there was considerable agitation on the subject among those having conflicting interests. Officers Hague and Herron not being "in the ring" for the reward, were desirous that Matthews should be held by the United States authorities, while the "detective," and those "interested" with him, represented the adverse faction. Much depended on the detective; he was master of the situation. Within him was the evidence, it was believed, to cause the United States Commissioner to hold Matthews. The demands of justice were likely to be served whether the prisoner was held or discharged at the hearing. If discharged, he would be at once arrested on the charge of burglary, and the chances were good for obtaining the reward of $1,000. But if held by the Commissioner, only glory would accrue to the United States officers, with which, however, they would be content, since they were ruled out in the other contingency. The "detective" stood in a peculiar relation. Having been operating previously with the United States officers, although a matter of choice with him, it was presumed he would remain true to his allegiance. He had in his power a man to whom he owed no love, and it might be a consideration with him to make appear what had been asserted concerning the part Matthews had taken to inveigle him into crime. He decided to serve those who would serve him. How? In the distribution of the $1,000 reward, we suppose. The time for hearing—Friday afternoon—came. The "detective" declined to testify, Wm. Linn, Esq., appearing as his counsel, and insisting upon the rights of witnesses under the constitution, that instrument providing that no person shall be required to give evidence against himself. The District Attorney conceded the point, and the "detective was relieved from testifying. This left officers Hague and Herron "in the lurch." They now had no evidence to offer against the accused. They protested, however, against his release, asserting that if further time were given they could produce evidence to warrant the Commissioners in holding Matthews for trial. Mr. Linn, counsel for the adverse faction, also for the prisoner, demanded that the officers state under oath the nature of the evidence they expected to procure, adding that he would see to it that they were held to a strict accountability for what they might assert in their affidavits. Officers Hague and Herron declined to depose. Then followed the discharge of Matthews, by the Commissioner, and of course he was immediately re-arrested, the adverse party being in waiting in anticipation of the result. He was taken in manacles to Washington, on Friday evening, and committed for a hearing on the charge of burglary. Other circumstances connected with this scramble for the reward we might state, but what we have related will suffice, at least for the present. All's well that ends well, but we are not certain that the result in this case reflects much credit on the parties concerned. The greed for gain, in the tempting prize offered, caused the officers, we fear, to act in a manner not calculated to inspire the public with a high appreciation of their efficiency.

Coal-Men's Trust Company.

We announced some time since the Coal-men's Trust Company, the stock of which is principally held by our shrewdest and wealthiest coal merchants and dealers, had purchased the large and commodious three-story brick building No. 65 Smithfield street. Since obtaining possession they have thoroughly remodeled the building outside and inside, and are now prepared to commence business in their new banking house. The main room is large and commodious, admirably adapted for the transaction of business incident to money dealing, having all the modern improvements for convenience. Between this and the Directors' room is located the fire and burglar proof safe, which is very capacious and built upon a new and novel plan, directly under the superintendence of the President of the Company, A. J. Baker, Esq. It is deemed the stoutest and best finished model bank vault in the city, and will certainly baffle burglars' skill and fire's fury. The rear room, which is separated from the bank by a narrow hall, will be devoted to the use of the directors. Upon the whole we believe the Coal-men's Trust Company banking house to be one of the neatest and best arranged hereabouts, and being located in the very heart of the city, it will doubtless receive a full share of patronage from the financial community. The President of the Company, A. J. Baker, Esq., has long been identified with the prosperous coal merchants of the city, while the other officers are equally reliable and trustworthy, occupying deservedly high positions in the mercantile community. The following are the officers for the ensuing year:

A. J. Baker, President; W. J. Patterson, Secretary and Treasurer; Directors, A. J. Baker, W. J. Patterson, W. A. Herron, Wm. Motherall, Thomas Farrow, James H. Hopkins, A. J. Hagan, H. A. Freyvogel, J. L. Johnson and A. L. Patterson.

The Directors have, in selecting our friend, E. J. Roberts, Esq., for their Cashier, wisely deferred to the general desire. His experience in the routine of banking—together with his intelligence, probity and obliging manner of treating those who have business with him—render his appointment a good one for the company and pleasing to the public.

Organist Resigned.—It is announced that Prof. Herman T. Knake, the well-known organist of St. Pauls Cathedral, has tendered his resignation, to take effect immediately. Under the direction and management of Prof. Knake the quoir of the Cathedral has obtained an enviable celebrity, and the great majority of the congregation earnestly enter their protest against the acceptance of his resignation. They cannot well afford to lose his services, more especially since it will be a difficult matter to secure a successor with the same musical talent and executive abilities.

STEUBENVILLE.

Our National Game—Contest Between the Hygeia Club of Pittsburgh and the Mears Club at Steubenville—Success of the Latter—Banquet, Presentation, &c., &c.—The Female Academy.

Saturday was a grand gala day in Steubenville. That enterprising and goodly old city of quaint buildings and warm hearted, hospitable citizens turned out in her full might to participate in the general excitement and enthusiasm ever attendant upon spirited contests for supremacy in America's national and noblest game—base ball. The contestants in the game were the Mears club, of Steubenville, and the Hygeia club, of this city, the former being the challengers. As the noon train on Saturday arrived in Steubenville, bearing the Hygeia boys to the scene of battle, a large number of the citizens assembled at the depot in company with the committee on reception of the Mears club, and a good old-fashioned welcome was extended the strangers. Carriages were in readiness for all, and in a few moments' ride the guests were safely landed in the elegant drawing rooms of the United States Hotel. A brief time was occupied in introductions and acquaintance making, after which the entire party were "made glad" with a bounteous lunch served in the commodious dining hall of the hotel. About one o'clock the carriages returned to the house and both clubs took their departure for the base ball grounds of the Mears Club, which are pleasantly situated about one mile from the Court House, on the outskirts of the city. Arriving at the grounds the contestants immediately proceeded with their arrangements for the game, and inside of a few minutes both clubs had assumed their positions, the Mears taking to the bat and the Hygeias to the field. A disinterested and competent umpire was chosen, and the scorers being in place, the game opened. The Mears club consisted of the following nine: Messrs. Bristor, Lowe, J. Bair, George Bair, Mandle, Black, Norton, Viers and McCook, Captain; the Hygeia nine: Messrs. Wainwright, Ewing, Stewart, White, Bayne, Littell, McCandless, Bryant and Pearson, Captain. The Hygeias were in ordinary costume, while the Mears nine were attired in neat fitting suits of canvass shoes, bright blue jean trowsers, enameled belts, loose white flannel shirts trimmed with blue, a large letter "M" being tastefully worked upon the breasts, and light jaunty scull caps completed the really handsome outfit.

THE GAME.

Both parties entered into the game with much spirit, although the Mears appeared to the best advantage, doing some "tall scoring," and fully convincing the intrepid Hygeias that victory won from them would cost more than an ordinary effort. Not wishing to disparage our own athletes, we must say that individually and collectively we have never observed upon any occasion, here or elsewhere, a better looking lot of well developed, trim, muscular gentlemen, than those of the Mears nine. They led off coolly and scientifically, preserving the utmost discipline in their ranks, from which they did not depart till the close of the game. In the first inning the Mears scored 19 against 8 of the Hygeias; in the second the Hygeias scored 20 against the Mears 13. In the third the Mears club played with little spirit, seeming somewhat dampened with the brilliant scoring of the preceding inning made by their opponents, and got only a single run. The Hygeias made on the third inning a score of ten which placed them ahead of their rivals, and caused them to lose decision and calmness, upon which so much depends in base ball. The Mears Club rallied on the fourth inning, but, although showing much dexterity, only succeeded in making a score of two, which was not surpassed by the Hygeias. In the fifth and sixth innings the Mears fully recovered themselves, and, putting in right clever work, succeeded in scoring eighteen while the Hygeias made nothing, being caught out with "fly catches" on both. In the next, or seventh inning, the Mears played with marked ability, scoring fifteen against two by the Hygeias. The Pittsburgh boys saw victory vanishing and put in their "big licks" on the eighth inning, scoring nineteen against their rivals four. The closing inning was played without much spirit on the part of the Hygeias, and resulted in a score of seventeen for the Mears and but one for the Hygeias. Total Runs: Mears, 89; Hygeia, 61.

The game was fairly won by the Steubenvillians, and the utmost respect and good will marked their conduct throughout the match towards the Pittsburgh club.

THE ATTENDANCE.

Fully two thousand persons were seated within the grounds during the playing of the match. Men, women and children were there, and all seemed to take the deepest interest in the game, enthusiastically cheering and otherwise applauding the members of either club when anything clever or scientific pleased them. A large delegation of the handsome and accomplished daughters of Steubenville were on the grounds, and with their sweet smiles encouraged the contestants. Among the visitors we noticed under the charge of the very worthy Principal, Rev. A. M. Reid, and his lady assistants, the pupils of the Steubenville Female Academy, who appeared delighted with the relaxation and novel amusement afforded. When the game was finished the vast assemblage returned three times three cheers for the victors and the vanquished, and then scattered in all directions for their homes. Seldom have we seen a more picturesque procession as it wended its way into the city. A long line of vehicles of all descriptions, solid ranks of men, women and children, completely blocking the highway nearly as far as the eye could reach, and lastly the carriages containing the Hygeia boys, who rattled off their choruses of sweet songs as though Victory kept them company and cheered their hearts with mirth.

A BANQUET.

At the United States Hotel a sumptuous banquet was in waiting for the contestants. The tables fairly groaned beneath the weight of good things, upon them and in their discussion the manly game of base ball was lost sight of, and its disciples left few relics to mark the triumph of the cook. With cold, sparkling water several toasts were drank and happy speeches made by General McCook, Captain McCook, General Pearson, Colonel Sayne, Joseph Gazzam, Esq., Dr. E. S. Umbstaetter, and others.

PRESENTATIONS.

Before adjourning Gen. Pearson handed over the customary emblem of defeat—a white ball, to Captain McCook of the Mears Club, and in doing so, took occasion to thank the members of that organization for the distinguished honors paid the Hygeia Club, and of throwing down the gauntlet for a return match to be played in Pittsburgh. Mr. Russell, President of the Mears Club, responded in a brief and fitting address, and assured the Hygeias that all hoped the best of friendly feelings ever would exist between the two clubs. At the conclusion of this interesting presentation Captain McCook took occasion to present two superb "foul flags"—too beautiful for such a name—to the Mears Club, as the gift of a fair young daughter of Steubenville.

Towards nine o'clock the Hygeias took their departure for Pittsburgh with golden opinions of Steubenville and her people, the Mears Club and its members. The Hygeias inwardly resolved to suffer no more defeats in the future, a resolution which with practice and training they certainly can keep, as no club in the country possesses better material for first class players.

A VISIT TO THE ACADEMY.

Connecting the early educational interests of the past with the progressive present, as a living monument to zeal and energy in the cause of knowledge, stands the time honored structure known throughout the country as the Steubenville Female Seminary. Among the very first, if not the very first in itself, of the colleges of our enlightened sister State, Ohio, this structure possesses more than ordinary interest to the visitor at Steubenville. It is romantically situated on the right bank of the Ohio, commanding a view so pleasing and magnificent, as delightfully ravishing as to approach sublimity of grandeur, that we cannot venture upon enthusiasm for description. It will suffice to say that Cole could find no scene in America to equal it, and with his genius reproduced it in his "voyage through life" series, and yet failed to do it anything like adequate justice—a confession he was ever ready to make. The buildings, though not of modern architecture, present quite a pleasing appearance from the exterior, while keeping pace with the age the interior is admirably arranged and adapted for educational purposes. In company with a number of professional gentlemen interested in education, we were kindly shown through the various departments and were much pleased with our observations. The parlors, music-rooms, art studios, mineral collection room, chapel, class room, library room, gymnasium, and other departments which we visited were, to Pittsburghers, marvelously clean, orderly, tidy and well kept, and recommendations in themselves which spoke volumes in praise of the management. There are now some eighty young ladies as boarding scholars, at the Academy, and quite a number of day scholars. Rev. A. M. Reid is the accomplished principal, and to his energy and abilities, aided by his estimable wife, as assistant principal, the present popularity of the college may be attributed. Ohio should be proud of the possession of the Steubenville Academy, where her daughters may become possessed of the best moral, and at the same time finished and practical education, and made not only useful members, but ornaments to society at large.

The State Medical Society will hold their annual convention in this city, commencing June 2d, and remain in session three days. Dr. James King, of this city, will preside.

Black Crook.—An immense house was in attendance at the grand production of the Black Crook on Saturday night. It will have a great run for several more weeks.

The Youthful Robbers—Further Developments.

We mentioned on Saturday the arrest of Barney Burns, Samuel Murtage and William Price, by officers Wrigley and Dressler, charged with stealing shirts from Aronson's clothing store, corner of Liberty and St. Clair streets. Since that time developments have taken place that serve to implicate them in several other robberies of recent occurrence. Two others of the gang have also been arrested, named Pat Lalley and Mike Welsh. They are all of rather youthful appearance, varying from sixteen to eighteen years of age. As was stated on Saturday, they had a hand in the robbery of Murphy's tobacco warehouse, on Liberty street, about four weeks ago. Part of the articles stolen from here were found in their possession, while they had disposed of the remainder. The store room of Mr. Heazleton, in the Diamond, was entered about two weeks ago by the same parties, and a number of articles carried off. They had gone down into the cellar before dark and concealed themselves among the barrels, until the store was closed, and then made their way up stairs, having previously provided themselves with matches and candles. Here they attempted to break open the safe, and in their endeavors to do so, did get a piece forced off from the side of the safe. They got but very little money and some articles of minor value. The next place we hear of them is in the robbery of Fackiner & Irwin's carpenter shop in Virgin alley, about the same time as the robbery at Heazleton's.

From here they carried off three planes, two braces, hand saw, oil stones, &c., which they disposed off to a carpenter named Steel, residing on Sixth street, for the sum of five dollars. These articles were identified by Fackiner & Irwin as those stolen from their cabinet shop, and also the boys identified by Steel as the parties from whom he had purchased. But two of the boys, Burns and Murtgage, came to Mr. Steel's shop with the articles, but it is quite probable that the others also had a share in the stealing of them. A revolver was stolen from the blacksmith shop of Mr. Breeze, in Strawberry alley, about the same time, and left at an eating saloon on Fourth street, as security for the payment of eighty cents due the proprietor for a meal furnished to Burns and Murtage. The same party had also entered a confectionery and fruit depot, kept by an Italian on Smithfield street, a few doors below Fifth, and appropriated a small amout of change, candies, &c. Another Italian, who keeps an apple stand at the corner of Fifth and Wood, had his case opened and a few jars of candies extracted therefrom.

Burns is also charged with the larceny of a watch from a flat boat lying over at the Birmingham wharf last week. This he gave to Mike Welsh. Welsh was arrested on Saturday evening by Captain Graham and placed in the lock-up. At first he denied any knowledge of the watch, but afterwards confessed to having left it at Smith's saloon on Third street as a pledge for a dinner furnished him. On repairing there the watch was found and brought to the Mayor's office.

The boy Murtage, charged with being implicated in the above robberies, is the same who was charged before Alderman Morrow, about three months ago, with the larceny of a sum of money from the Volksbatt office. He had been employed in that office in folding papers, and succeeded in three several attempts in bagging the contents of a money box, kept by the proprietors for convenience sake in the office. He was held to bail to answer this charge, but decamped, leaving his bail to settle accounts, and had not been heard of until picked up for his connection in the above cases. There are several other minor burglaries, committed of late, in which the boys seem to have had a hand, but which need not be mentioned at present.

In ferreting out this nest of youthful thieves, the Mayor, and his police force, deserve credit. One week ago the first traces of the boys were discovered and the duty of "working up" the case was assigned to officers Moon and Dressler. The developments thus far, and others we might mention, show very creditably the manner in which they have performed their work. The boys are all confined in the lock up, and will have a hearing so soon as the circumstances of the case warrant it.

The Academy of Music.

Our readers will bear in mind that the Academy of Music is to be opened formally on Wednesday night next, as a first-class temple of the drama. On that occasion the great English comedy of "Money" will be produced with the patriotic and loyal hearted historian, James E. Murdoch, as the leading character, supported by one of the best appointed and most carefully selected stock companies in America. It has been suggested, inasmuch as the inauguration of such a high toned place of amusement marks an epoch in our city, that the occasion be made the most brilliant and fashionable ever witnessed in Pittsburgh. If every seat be not occupied and hundreds of persons not turned away from the door that night for want of room, we shall have our confidence in the amusement loving community greatly shaken, for it is unusual enterprise which has induced Messrs. Hall & Burke to embark in the project, and they should be met at least half ways in their zeal to elevate the drama. Seats can be secured at the popular music store of C. C. Mellor & Co., No. 81 Wood street.

First Methodist Church, Fifth Street.

We understand the congregation of this church will hold a meeting this evening to take into consideration the propriety of selling it and erecting another, or remodeling the old one. This is rendered partly necessary from the increased interest manifested. The pastor, Rev. Alexander Clark, is an able and talented gentleman, and has labored faithfully and earnestly to build up this church, and his efforts have been crowned by a very large attendance, so much so that some change in the place of worship seems rendered necessary.

Manager Hess will arrive in the city to-day, to superintend the arrangements for the opening of the New Academy of Music.

We are indebted to Mr. W. A. Gildenfeny, No. 45 Fifth street, for Blackwood for April.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONDAY, MAY 13, 1867.

THE London Peace Conference produced a treaty with which all the powers profess to be satisfied; but which is to the mind of not one of them. Neither Prussia nor France gets Luxemburg; but the King of Holland becomes its Duke. Its fortress is to be razed. The neutral powers guarantee this status. So, the struggle between France and Prussia is postponed.

MR. MORROW B. LOWRY, of Erie, has pleasantly surprised the people of Pennsylvania. He has done a sensible thing. In view of the hostility provoked by his course, he has concluded not to attempt the impossible by seeking a re-election to the State Senate.

In consequence the Republicans of Crawford county claim the candidate, and the choice seems to be between Col. McCoy and Mr. RICHMOND.

MR. JEFFERSON DAVIS was taken from Fortress Monroe to Richmond on Saturday, upon a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Underwood, of the U. S. Circuit Court. It is probable, but not certain, that his trial will be commenced to-day. Whether the grand tragedy of the rebellion will end in a low farce, remains to be determined.

What a picture of life did the boat that conveyed Mr. Davis present! A State prisoner, under a guard of soldiers, on his way to trial for his life; two bridal parties, with gleeful retinues; and a woman struck down by death in the midst of all!

In re-entering Richmond, what memories must have pressed upon Mr. Davis; memories of his former power, of the great conflict, of his overthrow, and of his ignominious flight!

THE STRIKES at Chicago growing out of the demand for ten hours' pay for eight hours' work have about subsided, and it is stated that work will generally be resumed to-day.

It is not marvellous laboring men are everywhere dissatisfied with their condition, and anxious to improve it. Their case would be hopeless if they were content. But they do not always judge rightly as to the means by which they are to effect an improvement. Each man's destiny is mainly in his own keeping. He will ordinarily acquire a competency or fail of it, just as he uses his faculties.

In commercial, professional, manufacturing, mechanical and agricultural employments cases are about as rare as white black birds in which men have become either rich or famous by giving only eight hours a day to work. Success ordinarily exacts from fourteen to sixteen hours out of every twenty-four.

That many cannot endure so constant strain is true. Hence they fall out by the way in the race of life. The stronger bear off the prizes. How this is to be avoided we cannot see. The men of strength and resolution will use the advantages Nature has given them, and so surpass their fellows.

SOUTHERN RADICALISM.

South Carolina has always been conspicuous for possessing ideas, and for boldness in commending them to adoption. For nearly half a century this peculiarity gave her the headship of the slaveholding States. While we did not like her ideas, we admired the clearness with which she stated them, and the consistency with which she embodied them in law and usage. Besides, we have always felt there was more hope for South Carolina than any other Southern State, because she had ideas and the habit of following wherever they led.

Massachusetts has been pretty uniformly held up as the type of advanced Northern opinions, South Carolina of the most extreme Southern ideas. The rancor with which they have been stigmatized by the opponents of the views which have made them conspicuous, attests their respective claims to pre-eminence. But South Carolina, in defiance of her will, is called to act under changed conditions, which render the retention of her traditionary ideas impossible. Slavery has been taken from her by violence and destroyed. Free industry has been forced upon her, and she must get the best out of it she can. Were she dull, inert, unthinking, she might stand and idly lament what she cannot restore. Being full of energy, vivacity, versatility, she is doing nothing of the sort. Ideas govern her. Hence, Massachusetts must look out for her laurels of radicalism, or South Carolina will strip them from her brows and bind them on her own.

In revolutionary epochs ideas run fast. Modifications which in peaceful times ages would be consumed in accomplishing, are wrought out in a month. This is why periods of the greatest ferment, such as the people of this country are now going through, and such as the French encountered at the close of the last century, are always most fruitful of ameliorations which afterwards astonish mankind. It seems to be the ordination of Providence that the new birth of a nation, as of an individual, shall only come through agony.

Five years ago, in South Carolina the conception universal among the whites was that the blacks were by nature an inferior and subordinate order of beings, and by revelation predestinated to perpetual bondage in punishment for the offences of a putative ancestor. Those who attempted to thwart the purposes of the Almighty, so indicated in physiological structure and sacred story, were denounced as blind, ignorant, fanatical, infidel; unfit for association with patriotic and Christian men and women. Now, in South Carolina, by its dominant class of whites, the radicalism of Massachusetts is altogether surpassed. The leaders of the old pro-slavery Democracy, with WADE HAMPTON at their head, have resolved to run a mixed ticket, of whites and blacks, for the Convention and Legislature. This is going much farther than the Republican party has ever demanded. The utmost extent to which that party has gone is to insist that each citizen shall have the full enjoyment of his or her natural and inalienable rights. Office holding is not one of such. Under hereditary monarchy, indeed, some individuals, by a legal fiction, pleasant enough to them, are reputed to be born with the right to govern. They derive that right, either royally, from their fathers, or, theocratically, from God. But, under Democratic institutions, no person has a natural right to office. That right is held to be conventional, like the right of marriage. He who can obtain the suffrages of the majority, according to prescribed forms, has a right to bear rule; but none others. No man, white or black, has any business to complain that he is passed by. He may be more competent and meritorious than the one on whom the favor falls. If so, the people suffer, but they have none the less the right to put up and put down whomsoever they will.

The chivalry of South Carolina are "stooping to conquer." The blacks have votes. From chattels personal, with no rights at all, they have been transformed by the alchemy of the national fiat, into men, and invested with all the rights of citizenship. Partakers of the political power; constituting an absolute majority; they can exalt or abase. South Carolina accepts the idea, and follows it.

Stranger things have happened than that the men of both sections, who have faith in ideas, should come together, under the new order of affairs, and constitute the party of the future.

THE GETTYSBURG ASYLUM.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania, at the last session, passed "An Act to incorporate the Gettysburg Asylum" for Invalid Soldiers. The Governor approved this Act on the 6th of March. The corporators are Generals MEADE, PENNYPACKER, SICKLES and BEAVER, and Mr. JOSEPH B. BERGER, any three of whom are authorized to carry the Act into effect. Among the powers granted, is the right to "hold public fairs, at such time or times, upon such terms, and in such way and manner whatsoever as to them shall seem fit, any laws of this Commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding." The proceeds, of course, are to be devoted to erecting and maintaining the Asylum.

At the time and place appointed for organizing this Association, only two of the corporators named in the law appeared. Gen. COLLIS served as proxy for a third. These three completed the organization and adopted a series of by-laws, embodying a scheme to raise money by a system of gifts, modeled after the CROSBY Opera House Lottery. This seems to have been the original intention, and the clause of the Act above recited was manifestly framed to impart legality to the plan.

The attention of Attorney General BREWSTER was called to the matter and he prepared a formal opinion, which has been published. He makes two points, in effect: 1. That the Act does not warrant the scheme started under it; 2. That corporators cannot appear and serve by proxy; and hence the organization is void. For these reasons he expresses the determination, as the law officer of the Commonwealth to resist the execution of the scheme by prompt legal proceedings.

The Asylum Association, however, fortify their position by the opinion of GEORGE W. BIDDLE and SAMUEL C. PERKINS, two highly respectable lawyers of Philadelphia, to the effect that full legal power is contained in the law to do what has been done, and that the organization is legal.

Meanwhile a collateral issue has been raised. The Philadelphia Bulletin computes that thirty drawings, such as that recently advertised, will produce $12,000,000, of which the Asylum will get $300,000. It goes on to say:

> "Our calculation allows the liberal sum of $150,000 for the expenses of each drawing, leaving, as stated in a previous article, about $7,000,000 to be handled by this "Board of Supervisors" for their own share of the profit."

We have not taken the trouble to see whether or not this computation is accurate; or to determine whether or not any private and sinister speculation is involved in the enterprise. The character of the corporators breaks the edge of harsh imputations, so far as they are concerned.

If the Legislature, in passing this bill, designed to restore the old Lottery system, for a new object, it acted in contravention of the convictions and wishes of a large majority of the people of the Commonwealth. If authority to do that was covered by an ambiguity of expression, the real purport of which was not perceived, then a fraud was practiced. The next Legislature may be disposed to revoke the authority or interpolate an exposition. Either of these alternatives would doubtless be resisted in the Courts; the former on the ground that corporate franchises cannot be rescinded, unless misused or so conditioned originally; the latter on the established principle that it does not matter what a legislative body intended by a particular enactment, as the meaning must be determined solely by the words employed.

But it is presumable the Attorney General will fulfill his pledge, and bring the association into Court, leaving the Supreme Judges to decide whether or not Lottery powers have been granted it so as to stand.

IT is understood that Hon. JOHN CESSNA, under an appointment from the late State Temperance Convention, is preparing a bill designed to suppress the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania, which will be presented at the next session of the Legislature.

IN JANUARY, Printing Paper to the value of $31,553; in February to the value of $34,828; and in March to the value of $24,575; was imported from Europe into the United States.

ABOUT one-half of the copies of the GAZETTE mailed to places beyond the Susquehanna never reach their destination, being stolen by Postoffice Department officials.

The Lady of the Capitol.

Mrs. Ames, in her last Washington letter to the Independent, describes some of the female lobbyists and their ways. The following sketch is thrillingly interesting.

"Leaning back in a deep chair, no one near her, you see a fair woman, whose beautiful presence seems at variance with the many anxious and angular and the few coarse women around her. The calmness of assured position, the serene satisfaction of conscious beauty, envelope her and float from her like an atmosphere. We feel it even here. Pale plumes droop above her lovely forehead, velvet draperies fall about her graceful form. We catch a glimpse of alluring laces, the gleam of jewels glittering on dimpled, ungloved hands. Look long into this face; its splendor of tint and perfection of outline can bear the closest scrutiny. Look long, and then say if a soul saintly as well as serene looks out from under those penciled arches, through the dilating irises of those beguiling eyes. Look! and the unveiled gaze which meets yours will tell you, as plainly as a gaze can tell, that adulation is the life of its life, and seduction the secret of its spell. This beauty would not blanch before the profanest sight; it is the beauty of one who tunes her tongue to honeyed accents, and lifts up her eyelids to lead men astray. She comes and goes in a showy carriage. She glides through the corridors, haunts the galleries and the anterooms of the Capitol—everywhere conspicuous in her beauty. All who behold her inquire: "Who is that beautiful woman?" Nobody seems quite sure. Doubt and mystery envelope her like a cloud. "She is a rich and beautiful widow;" "She is unmarried;" "She is visiting the city with her husband." Every gazer has a different answer.

"There are a few deep in the secrets of diplomacy, of legislative venality, of government prostitution, who can tell you that she is one of the most subtle and most dangerous of lobbyists. She is but one of a class always beautiful and always successful. She plays for large stakes; but she always wins. The man who says to her, 'Secure my appointment, make sure my promotion, and I will pay you so many thousands,' usually gets his appointment, and she her thousands. Does she wait like a suppliant? Not at all. She sits like an empress waiting to give audience. Will she receive her subjects in promiscuous assemblage? No. If you wait long enough, you see her glide over these tesselated floors; but not alone. Far from the ears of the crowd, in some anteroom sumptuous enough for the Sybrites, this woman, as beautiful as nature and art can make her, will dazzle the sight of a half demented and wholly bewildered magnate, and then tell him what she wants. With alluring eyes and beguiling voice, she will besiege his will through the outworks of his senses, and so charm him on to do her pleasure. He promises her his influence, he promises her his power, her favorite shall have the boon he demands. Thus some of the highest prizes in the Government are won. Unscrupulous men pay wily women to touch the subtlest and surest springs of influence, and thus open a secret way to their public success. No longer the question is, Shall women participate in politics; shall they form a controlling element in the Government? But, as there are women who will and do exert this power, Shall it remain covert, equivocal, demoralizing, base? or shall it be brave, and pure, and open as the sun?"

A Diplomatic Trick.

A very amusing anecdote circulates about the Emperor Napoleon and the Prussian-Bavarian treaty. Six months ago the Emperor suspected what was going on, but could not obtain positive information. The Belgian Minister at Munich was charged to find out whether the suspected treaty with Baden, Bavaria, &c., really existed or not. The said Minister learned sufficient to justify him in starting for Carlsruhe. Arrived there, he goes at once to the Premier, and without preface of any sort asks, in a confidential way, to be shown the treaty agreed to by Prussia, Baden, &c, as he was desirous of reading the exact text in paragraph so and so, because he thought, &c. The Baden Premier, taken quite unawares, said he was really sorry he could not do so, as the treaty was a secret one; it was, therefore, impossible for him to show the paragraph in question. The other wished him good morning, and laughing inwardly at the success of his boldness, was not long in leaving Carlsruhe behind him.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The New York Independent announces this week that it will not hereafter be in any sense or degree an organ of the Congregationalists, but a weekly religious journal, abandoning the discussion of doctrines and creeds. The editor says:

> "So many men possess worse creeds and yet better characters than ourselves, that we totally despair of forcing the whole world into moral goodness through the narrow method of one prescribed belief. * * * These columns, therefore, are consecrated to God and man; to religion and civilization; to liberty, justice and equality; to the family and the sweet human charities; to literature, art and industry; in a word, to human progress!"

CONSUMPTION.—This Scourge of humanity, bane of civilization, with despotic sway has insinuated itself into all classes, grades and conditions of life. Neither age, sex or rank are exempt from its ravages. Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary headed age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough Expectoration, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, Darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation and a general negative condition of the whole system. It is authentically stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of Consumption. No disease has been more thoroughly studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease upon which exists a greater diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more completely baffled all medical skill and remedial agencies. Persons suffering from this dread disease or any of its concomitants, should lose no time in possessing themselves of the proper Remedy, in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON'S PREPARED PREPARATION for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung Affections, has been in use over 30 years with the most marked success. The remedy, prepared under Mr. Wilson's personal supervision, also a pamphlet, containing the original prescription, with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, may be obtained of the following reliable Druggist in this State, viz: JOSEPH FLEMING, 84 Market street, Pittsburgh, sole agent for Western Pennsylvania. my9:fem

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE!

Victim of debility, who is responsible for your feebleness? Not yourself, you will say, for you've done all you could to cure it. That's a mistake on your part. You hav'nt tried HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Gloomy dyspeptic, with an uneasy stomach and a world-weary face, of course you don't think yourself responsible for your own torments. But you are. It is easy to see from your condition that you hav'nt tried HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Bilious sufferer, it is not your fault, you think, that your symptoms grow worse day by day. Blue pill does'nt do you any good. Very likely. But you can be brought round for all that. Why hav'nt you tried HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Friend, on whom Fever and Ague alternately blows hot and cold, and whose brain seems to be bursting with the effects of some powerful drug, do you assume the responsibility? If so, no! You've taken piles of quinine, and all the regulation medicines. What could you do more? One thing more—the very thing that would have exempted you from all the pangs that now rack you. You have never tried HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Nervous invalid, what have you to say? You plead that you have taken all the nervines of the pharmacopœia. If they have done you no good, it is not your fault. You are not responsible. Wrong, all wrong. You have, in reality, nobody to blame but yourself. Why hav'nt you tried HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

For all the above named complaints, the Bitters are absolute specifics.

PINUS CANADENSIS.

A tree which is abundant in Canada, Nova Scotia, and the more northern parts of the New England States, and is also found in the elevated and mountainous regions of the Middle States, and abounds in medicinal virtues. Dr. Swett, of Boston, has prepared a medicine from the sweet inside bark of the pine tree, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which is of rare value in all debilitated states of the kidneys. It acts like a charm in all diseases of mucous membranes, enabling them to regain their lost tone and energy. It will be found well adapted to all those diseases, where Buchu has been tried and failed. It is likewise well suited to chronic coughs, and an infallible specific for old and debilitated cases of asthma. Many persons who at first only took a bottle of this medicine, to try, afterwards came back and got a dozen, or half dozen, which effected radical cures of diseases of the bladder and kidney of years standing.

Diabetes, a disease that has been looked upon as among the incurables, is immediately relieved by it. Notice the certificate of Asa Goodnue, published some time ago.

The United States Dispensatory, speaking of the pine, says: "It is prescribed in gonorrhœa, gleet, and other diseases of the urinary passages; in piles and chronic inflammation or ulceration of the bowels, in chronic catarrhal affections, and in various forms of rheumatism." It is exceedingly valuable in all gravelly affections, bloody urine, and where there is red and white sediment. It can be taken without interruption to one's usual avocations; and instead of sickening, produces a bracing, healthy power of endurance and vigor. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5. Ask for POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. For sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at DR. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood street. ap20

AUCTION SALES.

FOUR HOUSES AND LOTS IN SEVENTH WARD.—TUESDAY EVENING, May 14th, at 8 o'clock, will be sold, on second floor of Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, four very desirable Houses and Lots in the Seventh Ward, immediately adjoining the Passenger Railway Depot. The lots are each 20 feet by 76 feet in depth, to a 15 feet alley; two of the lots fronting on Centre avenue and two on Duncan street, the continuation of Wylie. The improvements on each is a well built Two-Story Brick Dwelling, in good repair, with four rooms, and yard in front.

The handsome and desirable situation of this property is sufficiently known. No situation in or around the city is more inviting to capitalists for a sure and rapidly remunerative investment, from the certainty increasing importance of Centre avenue and the Wylie street extension, as the main avenues to East Liberty and all intermediate consolidation of [illegible]

TERMS OF SALE—One third [illegible] one and two years, with [illegible] immediate possession of the premises given to purchaser.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court.

Before Hon. Wilson McCandless.

Court opened on Saturday at half-past nine o'clock.

The case taken up was that of Scott Smith, indicted for embezzling a letter from the mail. Smith having been previously indicted and convicted for a like offense, the District Attorney declined to press a conviction. Under the instructions of the Court the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

The case of Amos Graham, indicted for having in his possession a one hundred dollar counterfeit Treasury note, and trying to pass the same, was called up. District Attorney Carnahan, acting for the United States, and W. S. Purviance and James Murray, Esqs., appearing for the defendant. The testimony was brief, and the proof not sufficient. The jury acquitted, and the accused was discharged by proclamation.

The Court adjourned at eleven o'clock to meet to-day at ten o'clock.

Monday's Trial List.

COMMON PLEAS.

32. Robt. McClinton vs. P. Ft. W. & C. R. R.
65. J. G. Davis vs. John McCall.

District Court.

Before Hon. H. W. Williams.

Joseph Fleming vs. H. Darlington & Co. This case occupied Saturday's session, and the examination of witnesses had not been concluded at adjournment.

The Common Pleas Court was in session yesterday. Judges Sterrett and Stowe presiding, but transacted no business of general importance.

Educational.

The Allegheny County Teachers' Association held its monthly meeting last Saturday at Neville Hall.

The President, Professor Wakeham occupied the chair, and Mr. J. F. M'Clymonds acted as Secretary.

The report of the Committee on Queries was read by Mrs. Verbena Burns. Several important points in school management were very satisfactorily answered. Two of the topics were afterwards discussed by Messrs. L. H. Eaton, W. S. Gray and J. E. Ayers.

Miss Martha Glass read a well written and instructive essay on the "Education of the Future Citizen." Both ladies received a vote of thanks for their productions.

Professor A. Burtt offered the following preamble and resolutions which, after discussion, were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, From a recent discussion in the Senate of this State, together with information received from other sources, we are led to believe that there is a disposition on the part of some of the officers of our State Government to ignore the eminent services and superior qualifications of the Hon. Thomas H. Burrows with respect to our Common School affairs, and to repeal the law which makes the Pennsylvania School Journal, published by him, the official organ of the School Department; and whereas, we believe a well conducted educational journal to be of immense value to our school interests, and that the Pennsylvania School Journal has been conducted with impartiality and eminent ability, and that for several years that journal was sustained by Dr. Burrows at a pecuniary loss to himself; therefore,

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Association, the Hon. Thomas H. Burrows has done more for the Common Schools of this State than any other man, and is justly entitled to be called the "Father of the Pennsylvania School System."

Resolved, That any hostility to Dr. Burrows, tending to lessen his influence or cripple the School Journal, must be viewed as opposition to our highest educational interests, and should receive the emphatic condemnation of every true friend of Common Schools.

Miss Mary Proudfoot was appointed to read an essay at the next meeting.

The "Duties of the Educator to his Country," was selected as the subject for discussion at the meeting next month.

Alleged Attempt at Highway Robbery.

Irwin Hammill, residing in Snyder's Hollow, McClure township, was before Mayor Morrison, on Saturday, having been arrested on a charge of attempting to rob an elderly lady, named Harriet Rhodes, living in the vicinity of the outer railroad depot in Allegheny City, on the evening previous. It appeared she had made some purchases at a store, and was proceeding homewards through a comparatively unfrequented locality, near the depot, when she was suddenly seized from behind by a man, who grasped her tightly about the neck, covering her mouth to prevent her crying out, whilst he rifled her pocket. Most opportunely a servant girl in her employ made her appearance, causing the highwayman to flee before he had secured the old lady's pocketbook. The police were without delay apprized of the occurrence and at once went in pursuit of the robber, of whom they had obtained a description. They arrested Hammill, who, upon being confronted with Mrs. Rhodes, on Saturday morning, was fully identified by her as the individual who had assailed her. At the hearing he attempted to establish an alibi, but failed, and was committed to jail. He is a youth of about eighteen years, and strongly asserts his innocence.

The Coal News Trust Company, is the name of a new Banking Institution, the stock of which is held chiefly by our extension coal merchants. We are glad that some of the enormous capital accumulated by our enterprising coal men will be made active and serve to add new stimulus to the manufacturing, mining and commercial interests of the city and vicinity. The office of the Company will be at No. 60 Smithfield street, until permanent arrangements can be made. The Directors have, in selecting our friend, E. J. Roberts, Esq., for their Cashier, wisely deferred to the general desire. His experience in the routine of banking—together with his intelligence, probity and obliging manner of treating those who have business with him—render his appointment a good one for the company and pleasing to the public.

Splendid Country Residence.

To parties who may be in want of a nice country home, we would call their attention to the country residence offered at auction, and will be sold on Tuesday next at two o'clock P. M. This handsome property is situated in Baldwin township, near the Brownsville road, and formerly the property of Captain Samuel McKee. It contains some six acres of splendid ground covered with the choicest fruit trees and shrubbery, splendid dwelling, carriage houses and other out buildings. We would advise our readers who are in want of a country residence, or any one having money to invest to go and see this property, as there few such homes can be had. See advertisement on second page.

Run Over.—Johnston Gilbrass, residing on Allegheny street, in the Ninth ward, while driving down Penn street, on Saturday evening, accidentally fell from his wagon and was run over. It appears that his horses took fright at some object or other on the street and became altogether unmanageable. The injured man was conveyed to his home on Allegheny street, and Dr. King, from the Soldiers' Home, summoned, when it was ascertained that the patient, although suffering severely from inward bruises, will, in all probability, recover.

Growth of Erie.—A drive through the city and suburbs, says the Erie Dispatch, will give any one a much better idea of the rapid growth of Erie than any column of statistics. On all sides new houses have lately been built, or now in process of erection; in some places whole streets that were 'commons' last season, being dotted with lines of comfortable dwellings, and new stores are also springing into existence everywhere through the city.

Returned.—Alderman Strain and officer Brown returned from Washington on Saturday evening, whither they had gone on Friday in charge of Bob Matthews, alleged to have been connected with the robbery of the bank in Canonsburg. The prisoner was safely landed in Washington, and will have a hearing before Justice Smith, on Thursday next.

Attempted Suicide.—A day or two since William Evans, colored, a barber, residing on Fleming street, attempted to end his mortal existence by taking laudanum, swallowing two ounces of the drug at one draught. A physician was timely called, and with the aid of a stomach pump relieved him from the effect of the dose.

A Fight occurred on Saturday night on High street, which, at one time, promised to assume gigantic proportions, but by the timely arrival of the police, order was restored and the crowd dispersed. Cause of the fight—too much whisky. No persons were seriously hurt and no arrests made.

Wife Desertion.—Elmira Venatta made information on Saturday before Alderman Donaldson, charging her husband, Johnston Venatta, with deserting her. In default of five hundred dollars bail the defendant was committed to jail to answer.

Charge of Perjury.—Eliza Butler made information before Alderman Lindsay, of the Sixth ward, on Saturday, charging Matthew Doltson with perjury. The accused was committed to jail in default of five hundred dollars bail for trial.

A Steamer, of the same pattern and capacity as the Vigilant, has been contracted for by the Mechanics Hose Company of Birmingham borough.

Additional Local Matters on First Page.

—A monument is to be erected in honor of Mr. George Peabody, in London, and will have upon it his statue. At a recent meeting of merchants and business men it was determined to erect it in the centre of the large open payement in the rear of the London Merchants' Exchange, and the meeting declared it was to be a testimony of the deep feeling of gratitude entertained by the citizens of London towards Mr. Peabody for his munificent donations for the benefit of the London poor. The Prince of Wales heads the list of subscriptions.

—At the Paris Exposition is a bar of iron about as long and as thick as the pole of a carriage, tied in a knot as elegant and apparently as easy as though it were a ribbon, without a vestige of crack or flaw, and the visitor is assured that it was tied when cold. There is also a specimen of a railway bar bent double until the two sides meet flat upon each other, without a symptom of breaking at the end.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HELMBOLD'S
Concentrated Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Eradicates ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE DISEASES of the THROAT, NOSE, EYES, EYELIDS, SCALP and SKIN,

Which so disfigure the appearance, PURGING the evil effects of mercury and removing all taints, the remnants of DISEASES, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDREN with perfect safety.

TWO TABLE SPOONFULS of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla in certain affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, FREE OF CHARGE. Please enclose a post-paid envelope addressed to yourself.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—Farm of 147 acres, situated in Penn Tp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., adjoining Grapeville Station, on Penn'a, R. R., on which there is a good Two Story Stone House, with Six Rooms, a Barn, Carriage House, and other buildings; an Orchard of different fruit trees; it is underlayed with coal. There is a Salt Well on it in good order, producing 9 bbls. per day. This property is offered very cheap and on good terms.

Also, An excellent Farm of 160 acres, of which 95 acres are under cultivation, situate in Christian county, Illinois. Improvements—a new frame dwelling containing 5 rooms; about 400 choice fruit trees, good fencing, &c. It lies within 2 miles of the Illinois Central R. R.; will be sold on reasonable terms. City property taken in part exchange if desired.

Also, a Farm of 322 acres in Penn township, Westmoreland county. 220 acres cleared and under cultivation, 92 acres of first-rate white oak and other timber, 2 dwelling houses, 1 of them 2 stories, the other 1 story, with a tenant house, with a first-rate Steam Sawmill in good running order; young orchard of grafted fruit. The land is rolling; every acre is tillable, with lime stone soil and subsoil, with never failing springs; within one hundred rods of the Penna. Central Railroad; 28 miles east of Pittsburgh, and three miles west of Greensburg. This farm is pleasantly and eligibly situated in a good neighborhood; every acre is underlaid with coal. The title is good.

Also, a two-story Brick House, with 10 rooms; 20 feet front and 55 feet back, with two good lots, situated in the village of Bairdstown, Derry township, Westmoreland county, Pa., on the bank of the Conemaugh river, immediately opposite the Borough of Blairsville. This property I will sell for the low price of $1500.

Also, a Farm of 220 acres, situated in East Wheatfield township, Indiana county, Penna. The improvements are a good frame house, frame barn, and good fence, the residue in good timber. The soil is of a good quality, well watered, convenient to churches, schools, mills, etc. Will be sold at the low price of $40 per acre. Possession immediately.

—The war of the Express Companies still goes on. The New York Independent says:

We learn that a new contract has been entered into, or is about to be entered into, with the Hudson Railroad Company by the American Express Company, which will be decidedly advantageous to the American and detrimental to the Merchants.' It is rumored, we regret to say, that all the leading lines of railroads are about combining to do the same thing with the old companies. If this be so, we may be reluctantly compelled to witness the succumbing of the Merchants' Union to the grasping monopolies of the old companies, and record the failure of an enterprise which certainly has had our sympathies and well wishes, as well as that of the public. A lively time in express stocks may be looked for from this time forward.

—The Cincinnati Gazette observes: Under the present system the rings formed for the purpose of defrauding the revenue are much more powerful and far more successful than the Government, and when we see men appointed to detect fraud whose neighbors would not give them a position of trust connected with any undertaking, it is not surprising that the "rings" are powerful. The fact is, the laws are boldly defied, and every day we have quotations by telegraph, from various markets, of contraband whisky which is sold 30 to 40c per gallon below the rate of duty. It is conceded, too, that whisky cannot be honestly manufactured now, except at a loss. Yet it is being extensively manufactured. The effect is to demoralize the public, and people are coming to regard the duty of paying taxes as not a very sacred one. No matter what system may be adopted; no matter what information Mr. Smith may bring from Europe, it will go for nothing until the government comes to the point of appointing men of known character to execute the laws, and then see that the laws are rigidly enforced. The "rings" are so formidable and so well organized, that it will require the whole power of the Government, exercised through men who can neither be bought nor frightened, to break them up.

—There are rumors to the effect that the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company, who have the management of the Pittsburgh, and Columbus Railroad, are negotiating with a view, if possible, of obtaining the management of the Little Miami, Columbus and Xenia Railroads to Cincinnati, Ohio, and thus extend their through line direct from Philadelphia to Cincinnati via Pittsburgh and Columbus. It is said that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, in view of this fact, will endeavor to obtain the control and management of the Cincinnati and Zanesville Railroad, in order to compete with the Pennsylvania Central.

—The price of flour, sixteen to nineteen dollars per barrel, is attracting serious attention "at home." Everybody is inquiring of his neighbor, why is this! But never once is given a satisfactory answer. Strikes for "wages" or "time" are of almost daily occurrence, with corresponding resistance on the part of the employers. In the coal regions, as almost everywhere else, there more or less interruption in consequence of of these troubles. The present condition of the trade does not warrant the payment of the wages of last year, while the high price of nearly all the articles of living requires the largest pay of the past to provide the necessary food of family. Wages cannot come down while the cost of living keeps up. While wheat is imported from California, and flour from Europe, the price, with so much transportation, must necessarily be high. Amid all these cross-purposes it is difficult to say where a reform is to begin, and yet all experience teaches us that the present condition of affairs cannot continue. Whenever the United States, which is justly considered the granary of the world, and under a sound system of currency could feed the civilized world, fails to feed its own people, and becomes a purchaser from a distance, there is something wrong, and in all the history of the past, with such premonitory symptoms, the error of our ways is near a development. We do not mean to say that we are approaching a crisis similar to that which succeeded the importation of wheat from the Baltic at $2,50 per bushel in 1837, or the financial crisis of 1857, which succeeded a similar inflation of all prices—but the probable future is well worth considering. About every day we notice shipments of grain and flour from abroad. We have before us, taken from the marine news, notices of the departure from Liverpool for New York of five vessels within seven days's time, carrying seventy thousand five hundred and ninety one bushels of wheat; and a San Francisco dispatch, dated within the seven, says: "Ships Charles Leeling, for Liverpool, with 140,000 sacks of wheat, and Orpheus, for Hampton Roads with 29,000 sacks of wheat, sailed to-day." These are freaks in trade most unnatural, and can be remedied and improved only by economy, self-denial, and a wholesome regeneration of the currency.—Phila. Ledger.

United States Commissary Awards.

Colonel Small, of the Commissary of Subsistence, Department of the Cumberland, made the following awards on Tuesday:

James Kennedy, Louisville, Ky., 500 bbls flour at $17. Jefferson & Bro., Louisville, Ky., 500 bbls flour at $16,90; 500 do do, at $17,90; 1000 do do, at $15,80; 1000 do do, at $15,90. Smyzer & Milton, Louisville, Ky., 256 bbls flour, at $14,25. A. T. Merritt, Cincinnati, 20,000 hard bread at 9c. R. M. Bishop & Co., Cincinnati, 500 gallons syrup at $1,12. Jas. A. Frazer & Co., Cincinnati, 20 hf bbls mackerel, at $10,75. Newcomb, Buchanan & Co., Louisville, 500 gallons syrup at 95c. Tait, Son & Co., Louisville, 5000 lbs beans at $5,90; 10 hf bbls white fish at $7,25.

Dry Goods Trade.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 11.—The dry goods market has been quite active for cotton goods, especially for prints and brown sheetings, which are lower. We quote Atlantic A unbleached sheetings at 18½; do H, 18; Pacific extra, 18; and H, 18. All other brown sheetings, of the best makes, share in the depression, but the other styles of cottons show no further decline. Woolens are quite languid and depressed.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, May 11, 1867.

The general markets have been dull during the past week, and the sales in the aggregate have been comparatively light. So far as values are concerned, however, there have been no remarkable changes. The most noticable feature we have to report is the arrival here of Flour from Baltimore, which is reversing the wheels of trade, as heretofore, it has been no uncommon thing for Pittsburgh to ship Flour to that city. But as matters now stand, it seems that Flour can be bought to better advantage in Baltimore than in Chicago; it is to be most sincerely hoped that before many weeks elapse, this article, the "staff of life," will depreciate at least fifty per cent.

GRAIN—There is no Wheat in this market, except what is in the hands of the city mills. Oats firm but unchanged—sale of 1 car on track, at 64—small sales at 67@68. Corn is dull and weak with a drooping tendency. Prime Yellow cannot be quoted above $1,10. Rye is in good demand; buyers are paying $1,60 to $1,62 for small lots, and $1,65 is offered readily for car loads. Barley is quiet and unsettled; medium Spring is quoted at $1,10.

FLOUR—The market continues very firm, though devoid of excitement, and prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $15,00 to $15,50 for good to choice Spring Wheat; $16 to $17 for Winter Wheat, and $19 to $20 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is firm at $9.50 to $10.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady at 9¼ to 9¾c for Shoulders; 11¾c to 12¼ for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 15¼ to 15½c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams; 16¼ to 16½c for Canvassed do, and 15½c for Breakfast Bacon. Lard, 13c to 13¼. Dried Beef, 22½ to 23, and Mess Pork, $23 to $23,50.

OIL—Lard Oil is steady, with regular sales by manufacturers at 87 to 88c for No. 2, and $1,08 to $1,10 for No. 1.

POTATOES—Scarce and firm but unchanged. Peach Blows are selling in bbls $3, and in sacks at 90c. Buckeyes may be quoted at $3.50 per bbl.

BUTTER—Continues to come in very freely, with a fair demand, prices are not quotably lower—good to choice Roll 20c to 25c. Grease Butter, 8 to 10c as to quality.

EGGS—In better demand but unchanged at 15 to 16c—the great proportion of the sales being at the inside quotation.

DRIED FRUIT—The demand is looking up a little. Small sales of Peaches at 13c for quarters, and 16c for halves. Apples, 8 to 9c.

CHEESE—New Western Reserve is selling at 14 to 16c, as to quality.

HAY—Good to prime baled Hay is selling on wharf and track at $25 to $28. Common and inferior is very dull.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $3. No movement in Clover or Timothy Seeds.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, May 11, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was exceedingly dull to-day, not a single sale reported, and with but very few buyers and continued discouraging reports from abroad, operators generally anticipate lower prices. Spot oil may be quoted nominally at 6¾ to 7c, and at present prices at the wells, it would cost that much delivered here. So far as we can learn, there are but very few Pittsburgh dealers buying at the wells, and this, as a matter of course, will restrict arrivals, and have a tendency to bring about a decline at Oil City, and that there will have to be an improvement in the price here, or a "let down" there seems inevitable, as the figures in Philadelphia and New York are relatively below those current in this market. It is alleged, and with some show of reason, too, that the production is falling off, but prices cannot reasonably be expected to improve to any extent under existing circumstances, especially while the supply is so apparently in excess of the demand.

REFINED—Not a single operation in bonded oil to-day, and while the market is dull and weak, prices are nominally unchanged. Spot oil may be quoted, in the absence of sales, at 25½ for prime light straw to white, delivered in Philadelphia, and standard white at 26¼c. Some of our refiners, who sold short, are now realizing a very handsome margin by buying in Philadelphia instead of refining, and it is probable, unless prices should improve materially, that a great many contracts for all the summer months will be covered in this way. For free oil, the demand is very light, being restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the jobbing trade, which, in this market, has not amounted to much for the last year or two.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Fisher & Bro | 4000 | D. Bushnell | 2500 |
| D. M. Edgerton | 500 | Johnston & P | 100 |

Pork firm and in fair demand; sales of 3,300 bbls at $23,12@23,25 for New Mess, closing at $23,20 for cash for old mess, $19@19,25 for prime, and $22 for prime mess; also 1,250 bbls new mess at $23,15@23,20, seller thirty and sixty days. Beef firm; 500 bbls at previous prices. Beef hams quiet; sales 184 bbls at 40@44c. Bacon quiet and steady. Cut meats steady; 290 packages at 8¾@10c for shoulders. 12½@14½c for hams. Lard firm; 1,260 bbls at 12¾@13¾c for new. Butter quiet at 11@14c. Cheese firm at 12@19c.

LATEST, 5 P. M.—Flour closed quiet and nominally unchanged; high grades very dull; medium and low grades very firmly held. Wheat 1@2c better for spring, and quiet and unchanged for winter; No. 2 spring, $2,75@2,86; No. 1, $2,95@3,05. Rye quiet; $1,70@1,72 for western. Barley nominal. Oats quiet; 87@88c for western. Corn dull and lower; old shipping mixed western nominal at $1,30 in store, and $1,32@1,32½ afloat; new mixed western, $1,18@1,23. Pork a shade easier; sales 1,000 bbls. new mess at $30,15 cash. closing at $23,18¼ cash bid, and $23,15 asked; $23,15 bid far regular, and $23,20 asked. Beef quiet and steady. Cut Meats quiet and without decided change. Bacon nominally unchanged. Lard steady at 13¼@13½c; fair to prime steam, 13⅛@13¼c.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, May 11.—Wheat and Flour unchanged; both held firm. Corn unsettled and prices nominal with no demand. No. 1 mixed could have been bought at 91c in bulk and in sacks at $1,05. Oats unchanged and firm, at 72@73c. per bu. Rye $1,68. Nothing done in Barley. Whisky scarce and firm at 27c in bond. Cotton is firmer; and holders are asking higher prices; middling is held at 25c. ### New York Financial Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 11.—Money easy at 4@5. Call loans 6@7 for prime discounts. The Bank statement of Monday will show an increase of about $3,100,000 in loans, $4,800,000 in specie, $5,000,000 in deposits, and a decrease of $2,500,000 in legal tenders. This statement is not as favorable as for some weeks past. The Gold market was heavy to the close of the day, and fell off to 135¼. The Government was a free seller to-day, which, with the advance in bonds in Europe, caused a downward movement. Sterling closed nominal. Governments opened active and higher, and closed strong at an advance. The advance at Frankfort was the chief cause of improvement. Closing prices: Regular 1881, 111⅜@111½; coupons 1881, 111¼@111⅜; Five-Twenties, regular 1862, 106@106¼; do. coupons 1862, 108⅝@109⅛; do. coupons 1864, 105⅜@105⅝; do. 1865, 106⅛@106¼; do. January and July, 107¾@108; Ten-Forties, regular, 99⅝@100; do. coupons, 99⅝@100; August Seven-Thirties, 106¼@106⅜; June do., 105⅝@105⅞.

The Railway market opened strong and higher, and has been weak and strong by turns all day. Prices were lower after the 10 o'clock Board, when the Bank statement became known; afterwards there was a slight rally, not fully sustained. The market closed about steady.

At 5:30 the prices were as follows: American gold 135⅜@135⅜; Ohio and Missouri Certificates 22⅝@23; Canton 43@43¼; Boston Water Power 29¼@29¾; Cumberland Coal 31¼@31⅝; Quicksilver 28¼@28⅜; Mariposa 7@8; do. Preferred 19½@20; Western Union Telegraph 43@43¼; Pacific Mail 120½@120¾; Atlantic 86½@87; New York Central 97⅜; Erie 62⅞@62⅞; Preferred 72@73; Hudson 98¾@99; Reading 103⅜@103⅜; Missouri Central 108@109; Missouri Southern 67¾@67⅞, Illinois Central 114@114¼; Pittsburgh 72@72¼; Toledo 112½@113; Rhode Island 88⅞@89; Northwestern 43½@43⅝; Preferred 59⅝@59¾; Fort Wayne 96½@96⅝.

Border States bonds without decided changed; new Tennessee 6s sold at 62½. Steamship shares firm. Coal stocks quiet and firm. Mining market unsettled to-day by failure, brokers manipulating Columbia, and losses are considerable—the stock is offered at $3, and no bids whatever for it. At the mining board not much change in prices; the room closed this morning, and transactions limited on the street. Corydon was most active; stock sold up to $1,53. Gregory dull at $7@7,10; receipts of sub treasury to-day $3,451,642; payments $6,382,22.

New Orleans Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, May 11.—Cotton active and higher; sales of 5,500 bales; receipts, 107 bales; exports 8,843 bales; sales of low middling at 25@26c. Sugar and molasses nominal and unchanged. Flour—There is little business; choice grades are firm and low grades easier; superfine $13@13,25. Corn firm; mixed and yellow, $1,45@1,47½; white, $1,50. Oats in fair demand with a light supply, at 90@95c. Pork firmer and quiet at $24,50@24,37½. Bacon firmer; holders advanced their prices ¼c, owing to the light supply, asking 9¾c for shoulders, 12c for rib sides and 12¾@13c for clear rib. Lard quiet and very firm at 13@14½c. Gold 135¼. Sterling Exchange 46½@49½. New York Sight Exchange ¼@¾ per cent. discount.

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, May 11.—Coffee quiet and steady; sales of 1200 bags; Rio 13c. Gold in bond. Flour unchanged, and no sales. Wheat scarce, for choice Pennsylvania red $3,30, and for choice Maryland red $3,40@3,50. Corn dull and declined, good to prime white $1,18@1,20; mixed Western declined 6c; sales of 114 bushels. Oats steady at 71c. Provisions dull, steady and unchanged. Whisky in bond at 30c.

Louisville Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, May 11.—Sales of 145 hhds from $2,70@$22. Superfine flour, $10@11. Wheat nominal. Corn; shelled $1,10@$1,15 delivered; in the ear, 93c. Oats 81@82c in the bulk. Rio coffee 23½@26¼. Pork—fair to choice mess pork $22,50; bacon; shoulders 9¼c; clear sides 12¾c. Lard; in tierces 12½c. Cotton; low and middling firm at 25c. Raw whiskey; free $2,23.

Philadelphia Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Flour; holders demand an advance. Wheat firm; absence of business for want of stock; Pennsylvania red, $3,30. Corn declining; sales 12,000 bus. yellow at $1,29½. Oats firm; Pennsylvania 80c. Petroleum dull; crude, 16@16½c; refined in bond, 25½@26c; free, 41@43c. Whiskey nominal.

Milwaukee Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MILWAUKEE, May 11.—Flour quiet and firm; double extra, $13,50@14,50, and $12,75@13,37½. Wheat dull at $2,95 for No. 1; $2,82 for No. 2; $2,67 for No. 3; $2,32 rejected. Oats declined; 73@74½c for No. 2. Corn weak at $1,11@1,12 for No. 1; $1,04 for new shelled.

Toledo Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TOLEDO, May 11.—Flour firm. Wheat 1c better; $3,23@3,24 for amber Michigan. $3,25 for No. 1 Wabash. Corn $1,01@1,02 for new No. 1, closing with no sellers at $1,03. Oats a shade lower; 73½c for No. 1. Rye scarce and firm.

Chicago Cattle Market.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with scant eight feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, though towards evening it clouded up a little, and at times looked like rain.

No arrivals excepting regular packets, and no departures since Saturday.

The Kate Putnam left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Thursday, and the Great Republic arrived there the same day from New Orleans. The St. Louis Democrat, of Friday, says:

The Great Republic was but a short time in port when she produced a verification of the Scriptural assertion that "that the first shall be last and the last first," by judiciously investing a little spare capital. It was the Baltic's turn to load in the railroad line, and the Republic bought her trip and position. The Baltic relinquished her berth to the Republic and went into retirement to wait her distant turn to load.

Capt. Golding, of the America, writes to the Cincinnati Commercial, that he will lose money on his present trip to Tennessee River, as he was unable to get anything at either Louisville or Evansville. He states, however, that he is willing to give it a fair trial.

The Argosy left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday evening, with a fair trip, including one hundred and fifty bales of cotton.

The Bellevernon, en route from Pittsburgh to Louis, arrived at Cincinnati on Friday.

The Ida Rees and Belle cleared for Cincinnati on Saturday. The Belle had a rather slim trip, while the Rees appeared to have a pretty fair cargo, although she could have taken more.

The towboat Fearless left for Cincinnati with a tow of coal, as did the Whale for Louisville. Coal is reported very dull at 11¾ cts at Louisville. Here, there is but little loaded and ready for moving, the river having been in such good condition for boating for some time past that the coal has been sent forward as fast as it could be got ready, and consequently, there is at the present time no accumulation.

The Kate Robinson, Capt. Robt. Robinson is now in turn for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and will be the first boat out.

It is reported here that the mammoth towboat Ajax on her recent up trip from New Orleans, broke her shaft in the lower Ohio.

The Glendale, Capt. Hare, will load in turn for St Louis after the Kate Robinson.

The Julia No. 2 left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday. The Ezra Porter has given up her trip to this port, and will probably load at Cincinnati for St. Louis.

Capt. Dryden telegraphs from Jeffersonville, under date of Thursday, that the towboats Tigress, Ella, Eagle, Greyhound and Bengal Tiger, were putting their tows in the canal. The Minnie also arrived at Louisville the same day, and the Messenger passed down for New Orleans.

A telegram from Evansville to the Cincinnati Commercial, under date of Thursday, says: The Richmond has passed Mt. Vernon, and is momentarily expected. She is nine hours behind the St. Charles' time. The Argosy and one or two other boats passed down with heavy tows. The V. F. Wilson passed up. The suspension of Watts Crane & Co., will not seriously affect their correspondents here; the affair, however, has caused a most profound and painful sensation here, and the wildest rumors for a time prevailed.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Friday, says: Henry Morten & Co. yesterday received a brief dispatch from Omaha, that the steamer Mariner was sunk in the Missouri river, just above that city and will be a total loss. No particulars given. She was owned by the firm named above, and was valued at $18,000. She was insured for $13,000 in this city, in the Boatmen's for $1,500, and the remainder distributed among the National, Eureka, Tobacco, Ohio Valley, and Central Insurance Companies. She was running in the Omaha and St. Louis city trade.

The Louisville Democrat, of Thursday, says that "Jim McClosky, a coalboat man, was killed in a row at Pittsburgh on Sunday." If the Democrat man had examined his Pittsburgh exchanges a little closer, he would have found that McClosky, instead of being killed himself, killed a companion.

The Cincinnati Gazette says: That voting affair at Memphis was in just consonance with the character of all such chivalric doings. It now appears that the Belle of St. Louis received more votes than the namesake of an illustrious rebel General, but with that peculiar justice which has ever characterized the "conquered but unreconstructed," the trophy is awarded the R. E. Lee. The Memphis Avalanche, true to the "lost cause," says "the bestowal of the flag voted for at the fair upon the R. E. Lee, was a fair tribute to the finest boat, in the opinion of the fair donors, that hails from this port. There was considerable animation for a local packet—Belle St. Louis—one that has always shown herself, under her excellent command, worthy of the greatest popularity, but there can be no doubt that the appropriate gift was worthily bestowed, for the Lee wears the horns for making the trip from Memphis to Cairo in seventeen hours, the quickest time on record. The friends of the Belle St. Louis contend that she is entitled to the colors."

The new towboat Boaz, enroute from New Orleans to Pittsburgh, was at Cairo on Thursday last. The Richmond arrived there the same day with only one hundred tons of Ohio river freight.
